ANNIVERSARY SERMON

Preached by Rev. N. F. Stahl at Green Ridge Presbyterian Church.

LAST YEAR ONE OF PROSPERITY

The Gratuitous Work of the Apostles and Their Deprivations is Applied as an Interesting Parallel to Church Duty-What the Church Has Done in the Year-Freely Ye Have Received, Freely Give.

The nineteenth church anniversary and the tenth ansiversary of the pas-torate of Rev. N. F. Stabl were celebrated yesterday at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church.

Only three calls have been issued for pastors, who, by a strange coincidence, were members of the same class at Princeton, yet were from the east, south and west. They were Ray. W. S. Silter, of New Jersey, who did not accept; Rev. W. B. Walker, Maryland pastor for seven years, and Rev. N. F. Stahl, the present pastor. Rev. James McLeod, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church, was also of the same college class

The text of yesterday morning anniversary sermon was: "And they said nothing," Luke, xxii, 35 Mr. Stahl said that the Master one day called his apostles around Him and sent them out among men to preach the gospel of the kingdom, saying. "Freely have ye received; freely give." He prohibited their taking the things most men would have thought necessary for their work. Two years later the master said: "When I sent you without pursuand script, hacked ye anything?" And they said: "Nothing."

Mr. Stahl drew an instructive parallel and said the church of today is the apostles around Him and sent them out lei and said the church of today is the apostles' successor as kingdom build-ers. For nineteen years the Green Ridge Presbyterian church has engaged in the mission and the past year has been one of activity and prosperity. ENCOURAGING CHURCH FIGURES.

The session reported to the Presbytery at its stated meeting in April as foliows: Five elders, 55 new members, 38 received from other churches, addiions 93, 494 communicants, 23 adult aptisms, 11 infant baptims. Benevolent contributions were as follows: General home missions, $63 general Sunday school, $19; for Mr. Ktucak, $385; total, $467. Other contributions made the total $1,149.

A resume of the Sunday school work was made in which attention was called to the prinstaking work of Colonel F. L. Hitchcock superintendent of the school. Mr. Stahl spoke of the work of the Christian Endeaver and Junior unions, the Women's Mission-ary society, the Ludies' and Girls' Mis-sionary band, King's Daughters, the Ludies' Aid Society and other church associations. In each case the work of the year shows an increase in matters, both spiritual and otherwiss. In speak-g of the retirement of Attorney C. S. Woodruff from the treasurership, Mr.

From all sources the contributions for benevolent work has been $2,100; O'Boyle, T. P. Hoban, P. J. McCaffrey, receipts from other sources make the Morris Collins, and J. J. Brown will not be a support of the set implied.

"And now bretheren in considering this beautiful and progressive church the Lord has given us, our increase of membership, our year of prosperty, when the Master asks "Lack ye anything," must we not answer "nothing." 'Freely ye have received, freely give." Now what does the Lord want ns to give? In one word, yourselves. CHRIST OWES US NOTHING.

Brethren, are we giving ourselves to the Lord and His work? That is what He wants-what He claims. In all the coming time let us be faithful to Him, to souls, to this church, to each other, to our own selves. Christ has graciously said: "Freely ye have received freely give," but he might have said: "I committed to you much in trust, pay that thou owest." An we owe so much. How would each of us live if this were to be his last year on earth? This is the way that you ought to live, my brother, this year. This you yourself will confess. Shall we not try to at least approach such a life this year: "I have lived like a beggar," said a dying philanthropist, "that beggars might learn to live like men," and so, as has been well said, Christ lived like a man that men might learn to live like God.

motto this year? As we remember all the Lord has bestowed upon us and what He asks us to do for Him and His lost ones, "Freely ye have received, freely give." If so, and we try to live up to it, what a year it will be for Him, for them, for us. The Lord asks us what we need more than He has given us, in order to make this twentieth year of our work for Him a great and glorious work. And, brethren, we must answer in the words expect such a year's work.

Martin Crossley's Uneducated Palate Almost Lost Him His Life-He Is Now Out of Danger.

Martin Crossley, a butcher by trade, living for the past year at the City Boarding house on Lackswanna avenue, next to McGarrah & Thomas' drug store, swallowed some chloroform yesterday afternoon and went as close to death as a man could without actually "cashing in his checks." Crossley and another poarder found a pint bettle half filled with chloro-form, and thought it was apple jack. Each took a mouthful and Crossley swallowed some of the fluid, his companion spitting out what he had taken. It a few seconds Crossley became unconscious and Drs. Hand and O'Malley were bastily called. Emetics were applied and from the vomit there came a strong exhalation of the drug. Strychnia and atropius

Charles P. O'Malley Willing to Do Battle with the Candidate Who Will Be Named-Republican County Convention Will Probably Not Be Held Until Latter Part of August. Coming State Convention.

At 10.80 tomorrow morning the Democrats of the Fourth legislative district of the county will most in convention at Jermyn to nominate a candidate for state legislative, conture. It is the third legislative convention already held in the county, the Republicans of the First and Third districts having their candidates named. Tuesday's convention will be called to order by James Pidgeon, of Carbon-dale, and the following candidates will probably be placed in nomination: M. T. Burke, of Carbondale, the present member from the district; James

ONE WHO IS WILLING.

There is at least one person who is willing to buckle on his armor and do pattle for Republican principles in the Fourth district, and that is Charles P. O'Mulley, of Olyphant. He is an able and aggressive young man who for sev eral years has been the stenographer for Willard, Warren & Knapp. In addition to his stenographic work he read law and passed his final examination for admission to the bar a few weeks ago. He is popular in the district and would give royal battle to the candidate the Democrats will name

On Wednesday the Democratic state convention will assemble at Harrisburg. On the basis of the vote cast for Cleveland in 1892, 454 delegates are entitled to seats in the convention. It is probable that there will be far from a full representation. Among the candidates mentioned for the nomination for governor are William Singerly. of Philadelphia; ex-Mayor W. Horace Rose, of Johnstown; Senator Gerard C. Brown, of York; George A. Jenks, of Jefferson; Walter E. Kitter, of Ly. coming; Samuel McCuen Wherry, of Cumberland county; Judge H. Willis Bland of Barks.

Northumberland county; ex-Mayor Thomas B. Merritt and Robert E James of Northamton; ex-Senator Hannibal K. Sloan, of Indians, and R Jones Monaghan, of Chester county. It is altogether likely that [General W. W. Greenland will be named for secretary of internal affairs, and for the office of auditor general, William B Given, of Lancaster; Wells B. Clendenin, of New Castle: ex Mayor John Fertig, of Titusville, and George S. Fleming, of Pittsburg, are mentioned. For congressmen-at-large the most prominent names mentioned are ex-Congressman Coffroth, of Somerset; Captain William Hasson, of Venango; DeWitt Clinton DeWitt, of Bradford; George F. Baer, of Berks; ex-Congressman Snowden, of Lehigh, and William Krickbaum, of Columbia.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION. County Treasurer D. W. Powell, who s chairman of the Republican county committee, said when seen by a TRIB-UNE reporter yesterday that the sentiment of the members of the party throughout the county is against an early convention. It seems to be the general impression, he said, that the latter part of August would be time enough to hold the nominating convention. A petition was presented to him last week signed by members of the county committee asking him to call that body together to consider the question of fixing a time for the convention. In conversation with a number of those who signed the petition Mr. Powell said he was informed that they had attached their names to the paper mere-ly to please those who had presented it to them without giving the matter any consideration whatever. They did not favor an early convention, believing that if the candidates were placed in the field the latter part of August the campaign would be plenty long enough. It is very proba-tile, therefore, that summer will be on the wane before the convention assem-

SENTENCES IMPOSED BY COURT.

David Williams Sent to the Penitentiary for Two Years-Thomas McQuire Found Quilty.

The hand of justice was not heavy on Saturday, but the prisoners received the just dues for their crimes. Joseph Chump, of Olyphant, who slightly in-jured Mayk Kranjak in a saloon by shooting him, was sentenced to pay $1 fine, costs of court and spend six months in the county jail. In the cases against Michael Walen, Patrick Cor-coran and William Noll the costs were put upon the county.

Shadrach Lewis, for deserting his wife, was required to give ball to insure the payment of $8 a month to her support. Parrick Mangan, for threats against John Joyce, was imposed with the costs. Thomas M. Thornton, who plead guilty to using an iron bar on the neck of Albert Binger, will pay the costs and $1 fine. David Williams, the inhuman brute who attempted to as sault 9 year old Anna Kalipila, was sentenced to a fine of $1, the costs and two years in the pentiontiary. John Woerzel, who relieved Eliza

Newton of $15, was directed to make restitution and spend five months in the county jail. A capias was issued for Michael Peako and John Huss, upon whom the jury placed two-thirds of the costs in the case of Isaud Harrison against them. Another capias was issued for J. W. McLain, upon whom the jury placed costs.

The sheriff was also directed to bring for sentence Mayk Matejawics, who did not answer to his name when called. If Michael Lyman be found. he also is required. There is a bill of costs against him. Others against whom caplases were issued are Patrick Phillips, Calvin Criter, Michael Cunningham and Thomas Munay, Elizabeth Davis was sentenced to pay half the costs. Arthur Long and William Phillips, being acquitted of highway robbery, were discharged. The jury came into court just before noon, Saturday, and returned a verdict of guilty against Thomas McGuire, of the Adonis Dixey company. Attorney Fred R. Starl moved for a new trial on the ground that nuisance, with which McGuire was charged in the transcript, was not an indictable offense. Judge Elwards believed the indict mest was proper, but postponed sen-tence till to-day. Attorney O'Brien asked the court to direct McGuire to furnish better security than P. Ryan, who was his bondeman. Guire could not do this and was committed to the custody of the sheriff.
